A Quest was Set Before Us!

Long, long ago in a world where the population wasn't even at 2,000...one group of heroes decided to form an alliance of what they call: a Yearbook Staff! This Yearbook Staff was assembled to create a document which could capture images of the civilians and leaders enjoying the activities they took part in during a period of one year. The alliance wanted to give this document a name as important as their purpose...so they called it: the Yearbook!

Once the staff makes an announcement about the release of this so called "Yearbook," civilians and leaders get excited, and as the release time comes near: civilians and leaders wait in anticipation. When the book is available to the population: everyone desires owning one. For those who can't get one of their own, they look at their friend's yearbook. They gossip about it: which is a good thing. Today, the anticipation is over and the day is here: "Game On"!!!

INSERT GAME!!! Welcome to the 2009-2010 yearbook. This year, our genius yearbook staff came up with a "brilliant" theme...INSERT GAME!!! Gaming resembles life, and school in many aspects. Being a student has many levels, and many opportunities to "skill up." The ultimate goal of a gamer is success, as is that of a student! The theme of this book focuses on a concept called powergaming, which means "to concentrate on gaining levels, skills, items, etc. as quickly and as efficiently as possible." We have many such successful memories from this year downloaded into one excellent book. The yearbook staff went straight BeastMode on this book!!! So now, as you spend time checkin' the stats and observing the uploaded images...all we have to say to you is:

Power Up Up Up

Spirit week always brings new life!
Even uniforms can't stop our school spirit!
The week designated for showing our hornet pride had everyone wearing wacky socks, doing something terrifying to their hair, wearing mardi gras beads, walking the halls dressed like twins, and, of course, rockin' our brown & gold like true hornets!

Top left: Rachel Young and Maranda Moorman with crazy hair. Kevin Watts, showing his Howe pride, all painted in brown and gold!

Left: Mrs. Nixion and TyQuita Arnold during terrifying hair day. Far Left: We all had a good laugh seeing Mrs. Ward, Mr. Fields, Mr. Dixon and Mr. Betts in their, ha..hum... "beautiful" wigs!

Below: Hornets are caught on their craziest hair day or showing off their wacky socks during spirit week!

The Top Dogs:

Our seniors were on a mission, leading the way to success. They were the ones setting examples and being role models for our underclassmen. Graduation may seem like everything, but it was only the beginning. Hornets were always supported and encouraged to reach the highest goals.

Congratulations class of 2010!

You deserve it!

YEAH BUDDY !!!

THE CROWD WAS POPPING !!!

Every year before homecoming, we have a pep rally where students and cheerleaders take time out of the day to hype up our team! At the game, our hornets came out with their heads up high and ready to sting the Northwest Pioneers.

At half-time we announced our Homecoming King and Queen, Keith Davis and Olivia Foreman!

Sitting in the crowd was definitely exciting, but watching the game was incredible! In the second half the Hornets pulled through with a 16-12 victory over the Pioneers. The Hornets pulled off their first win of the season!

Quest: Take the Crown

This time of year was the best of all because the excitement level was at its best! During homecoming, school spirit was at its all time high! Everyone was celebrating and ready to see who would take the crown! Olivia Foreman said, "I was surprised because I wasn't really expecting to run, and I didn't get a chance to compete." Keith Davis said, "I thought Andre Hampton was gonna take it home, but all the votes went in and I took it home!"

Known as one of the biggest goofs in the school, Chris is actually one of the busiest students outside of school. He has a job, puts hot sauce on everything, plays hard, and is in a band. There are a lot of things people at school don't realize about Chris.

Chris spends more time driving his car than at home.

Apart from working, Chris devotes his time to Music. (recoding vocals)

TEEN JOBS

For most teens, sports is a must. But for some, its only a benefit to their after school opportunities. Take Zach Sponsel, for example. He wrestles and holds down a job at your neighborhood pizza shop, Jockamo's. It is possible to do both; you just have to believe it is possible. Get out there and do it.

Press Start

New World!

Transitioning from one world to the next, our seventh graders really made it interesting this year. Whether they were running around the halls, or the loudest table at lunch, they always seemed to be having fun trying to conquer this new world of theirs.

As a 7th grader, Dave Hutchins joined the high school advanced art class and participated in an outreach program called "Beyond Perceptions." Here, they learned more about the growing issue of homelessness, and were able to share their insight with others.

Robert Johnson, Nathan Wright and Brandon Padgett showing their Colts pride, and just acting silly in the cafeteria!

Dave' Hutchinson

Says about his seventh grade year... "I have just been chillin' in class. My favorite class was Mrs. Ajayi's advanced art because there were other artists on my level."

Veronica Rangel

"It didn't seem like much of a difference from sixth grade because at my old school, sixth grade was a part of the middle school." She also advises to work hard.

Zane Beltran

"It was very boring to be here this year, although I switched classes a lot, and that's pretty much it. I hope that my eighth grade year will be much better."

Jayme Hill

"I had a lot of fun. The work was a little bit harder but I got the it done. I like that we got to move around instead of staying in one class. I met some cool new people too."

Mission: Success

It takes a lot of patience to be an educator, but even more than that... it takes heart. Our teachers and mentors put in countless hours of their own time, just to help us become successful. They don't get a lot of glory, but we know their hearts get the chance to smile when they see our success!

Ms. Calloway did not realize she wanted to be a teacher until she was in college. It was then that she came to the conclusion that she was going to be a teacher and give all of her students an equal opportunity. As a teacher, she has decided to work at the same IPS school she grew up in. We are glad she chose Howe!

Mr. Teagarden

Mr. Teagarden decided he wanted to be a teacher fairly early, as a junior in high school. He got support from his math teacher and coaches. He helped other students in his class, as well as volunteered during the summer to give swimming lessons in the community. He came to find he really enjoyed helping and teaching which affirmed his desire to be a teacher.

Mr. Pagano

Mr. Pagano knew he wanted to be a teacher as early as seventh grade. He decided to be a teacher because he had good teachers himself and he enjoyed history immensely. He had to take a break from teaching and took a job in sales and marketing. However, as soon as his children finished college, Mr. Pagano went right back to teaching.

Herbie Lawson:
I like yearbook because it is fun creating and raising money for the book of memories. It also looks good for college!

Jessica Watson: I've been in yearbook for three years, and my best memory has been every part of it. The fun times with my goofy friends and the opportunity to create the yearbook!

Megan Murff: In yearbook I can be unique and make everything

Mission:

Cadets Take Action!

Above, Cadet Will Carter collected a donation for the Haiti Earthquake Contribution. Along with Joey Crowe, the JROTC program took the initiative and began collecting whatever donations staff and students throughout our school were willing to give to the victims of unfortunate circumstances. We are proud of you guys for stepping up, giving back and making a commitment to helping out in more than just the community.

What do you like about JROTC?

Choir had such an amazing year. Each student improved so much. With middle school choir and beginning choir just getting their start, the choir was on a new mission. Everyone was so passionate, there were even boys participating in the show choir! The middle school and advanced choirs rocked the stage at the ISSMA competition and gospel choir did not let their small size stop them! Students in the choir also put on fantastic musical called "You're a Good Man Charlie Brown." They have done an incredible job! Students can't take all the credit: if it were not for Mrs. Benson's faith, accuracy and dedication, as well as Mr. Howard's talent, our mission would not have been completed.

Beginning Choir

Gospel Choir

There were many different choirs to choose from if you wanted to really show your vocal talent. Some students found themselves participating in more than just one! For instance; a beginning choir student may also want to be in gospel choir or an advanced choir student may also like to be in the show choir.

1. Melody McRoy

"My improvements would have to be sight seeing and learning the right notes."

2. Diana Tackett "Honestly, gospel choir keeps me coming to school! In gospel choir I have so many things: friends, passion, and Mrs. Benson!"

Diana Tackett

above: Our choir students dressed so sharp, and put one hundred percent effort into each performance. It has been nice to see them grow, develop, and shine! Mrs. Benson and Mr. Howard have done a lot of work to bring these groups into such great harmony!

3. Briana Williamson "I am a choir nerd, the reason I like choir so much is because it is my passion to follow notes of music."

SOUNDTRACK

Thrill 'em softly

Amanda Clark
"I like the different types of songs the band played and being involved in the battle of the bands."

Jeremy Lewis
"My favorite part was playing at the St. Patrick's Day parade, because we got to play the Irish party."

Jonathan Lyberisse
"I like marching band more than concert band."

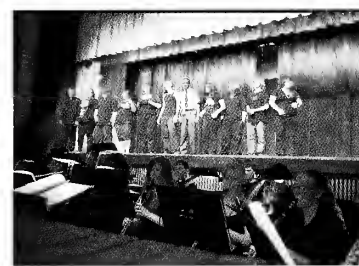

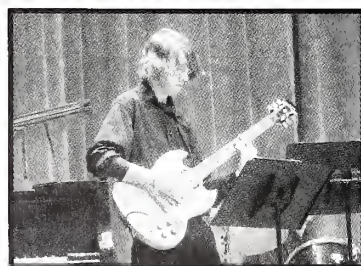

Jennifer Garrett
"My favorite part about band is being a leader."

"At the musical, 'You're A Good Man Charlie Brown'... the band made the performance even better with music from the play."

"The artwork is interesting and not too simple. The regular art class was boring because we didn't get to use a lot of the materials we get to use now."

Chris Williams

"My favorite part about art is working with all the media; the clay, plaster, and balloon work."

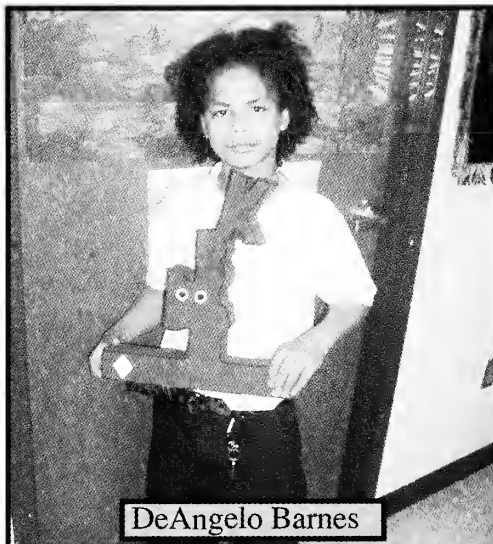

Chris Gordon

"Being around other artists is inspiring. In a normal art class, I felt like I was a teacher or something."

Mrs. Meyer

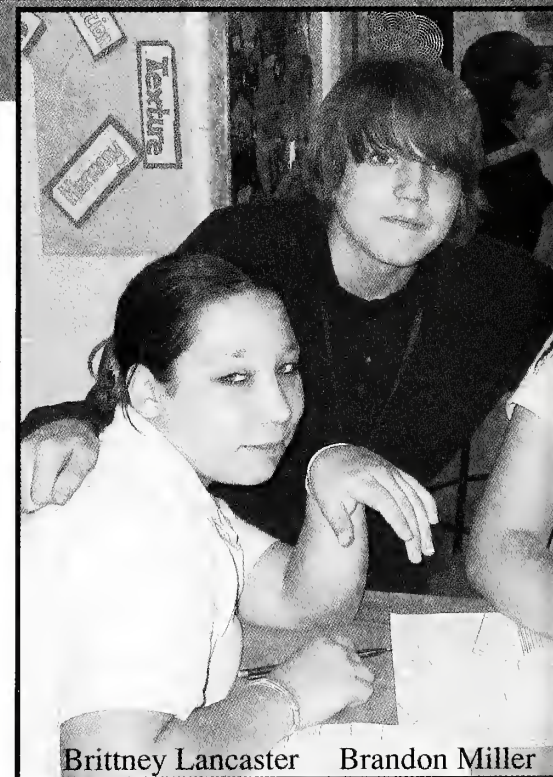

From middle school to high school, 2D to 3D, beginners to advanced, amazing artists flood our hallways here at Howe. With project after project that will knock your socks off, we have wonderful art teachers to guide the students. They show them that anything is possible if you just set your mind to it. One of our art teachers, Mrs. Meyer, said "This year I had so many students that were very talented, and I am very proud of them." Students with these specified gifts, worked long and hard until they finished masterpieces that even they are proud of. Art student DeAngelo Barnes said, "My favorite part of art is how I put all the work into it, and it turns out so beautiful."

Get in the Game!

The athletic department has a lot to offer. From football to track, volleyball, you will find all sorts of great ways to express your true talents.

So if its the rush of stealing the ball, the deep beating of the heart when running up and down the, and the crowd jumping to their feet and yelling when you make a shot. Come on out and join the basketball team.

If you like to run, jump, or throw come on the field than come and let us all see what your made of, on the track team.

If you are good at stealing bases without getting caught, check out our Hornets baseball or softball diamonds.

So we say to you lets go join a team.

Sturgeon: NFL 2k10

We had a very strong, growing football program. The guys pushed themselves and came together.

The Hornets had a positive season. Win or lose, they always held their heads high, stayed focused and worked hard. Lets all get out and support the Hornets in the upcoming season.

“Strive for Greatness”

Mission: Claim the City

Coach Sturgeon

“The Best is Yet to Come!”

“We’ve got new coaches who believe in a character and faith based program. We know the kids aren’t here for us, we’re here for them! Seeing the middle school team win

City was a major boost of confidence for all of our athletes. They need to see what it is like to be Champions!”

The Hornet Wrestling Team fought hard and with all their strength this season. We hosted the tournament at the hornet's nest and came in third place. Great job wrestlers, your strength, focus and dedication makes us proud!

It was most of the wrestlers first year and they all improved with the help of their coaches. As a team, we had a great season and are going to come back stronger and more victorious next season!

Mission: Get the Pin!

"This season was very successful and we placed third in our own city tournament! For next season practice will be harder and more intense. My goal for next season is to advance the most IPS wrestlers into regionals!"

glad that I went out as MVP my senior year!!"

Zach Beltran: "When I won best attitude I was shocked but proud of myself."

Domonic Nelis: "Most improved is awesome. I'm glad I started this sport and look forward to next season!"

Howe's track and field team had a hard mission to complete. Senior leaders Terry Sargent, Quinten Edwards, Herbie Lawson, Martel Baker, and multiple others lead the team with great enthusiasm. Going into City, they felt confident and ready to show what they were made of. With a small team they could say they had their struggles, but with confident coaches and teammates everyone always stayed positive and aware of what they needed to work on. The season was a real success!

SENIOR PLAYER'S

Sembly: NBA 2k10

Getting ready for the season. Lacing up the sneakers, stretching, running drills, the strength of five individuals on the floor forms in unity the ultimate Hornet. It starts with practice, yes practice. Discipline became more than another nasty word, it became our motto. Working on the handles, perfecting the jumper, spacing, blocking out, rebounding, hustle, chemistry. We came together and went to battle during each game. Together we stood against all odds and reached new heights as individuals. Now we pass the ball to the next generation of ballers, encouraging them to respect the game, respect each other and keep ballin.

High School Boy's Basketball

WNBA: 2k10 HARDISTER Edition

Get ahead of the Game!

This season, although both the Varsity and Junior Varsity teams faced important seasonal and temporary loss of its players, we still managed to have a productive season. We went beyond the game of basketball and carried strength into our lives both in the locker room and out. The majority of the players on our team this year were underclassman so the season started difficult for veterans, coaches, and freshmen alike. However, despite having to make adjustments to new personalities and and injured veterans, our Hornets put forth winning attitudes all the way! Go Hornets!

Team Head Coach, Lori Hardister
Assistant Coach, Mr. Fields

Above is our Middle School Girls Basketball Team. These ladies worked hard and became the 2010 City Champions. Congratulations ladies...you are the future...!!

Being a team means working together. That is what can be said for our middle school girls who won City! Their hard work, and team spirit set a great example for opposing teams, as well as the upper-class basketball girls and other sporting teams at Howe!

Aunyah Smith experienced many hardships this season and was forced to sit out for the majority of the season due to a heart condition however, she still led the team in scoring and rebounding with a game high of 39 points;14 rebounds.

.....GAMER'S CORNER

Sharonda Tucker

"Being a leader next year is going to be a lot of stress because we will have to bring in new freshmen and show them the ropes."

Tiffany Watts

"I had a great season, and next year it will be great to be a leader. All athletes are leaders because we set an example for our peers."

Shanice Harris

"It feels normal to know I am going to be a leader next year 'cause I have always been one. LOL! But really, it feels good."

Cassie Hunter

"Being a leader will be a great opportunity to help the new girls. Our middle school team has good leaders coming in too!"

Baseball

Directive: Knock It Out Of The Park.

Coach Dierolf
 "I feel that our overall season was pretty good. Most of the players did not have mitts or cleats and not much experience, but they showed a lot of heart. The kids have improved and learned the game of baseball."

Jacob Dunn
 "It feels great to win Most Improved! Next year I'm going to come back a better player."

Nate Wright
 "It is cool to win MVP and it feels good. It was a surprise!"

Captain's

The Big Winning Season

Our Lady Hornets stung hard this year. With many improved players from last year and new ones that joined, the ladies became un-stopable. Our middle school softball Hornets won their second IPS City Championship. With a record 9-0 season, the lady hornets went undefeated as they buzzed past every team that came their way.

Tabitha Bell

"My favorite part about playing this year was being with friends and playing in the Championship game".

Kayla Pruitt

"My favorite part was that we went undefeated and that the team really improved from last year".

Mariah Brown

"My favorite part of the season was the first game, Broad Ripple, because we blew them out."

Coach Crystal

"These young ladies worked very hard and had excellent attitudes. Congratulations girls! You've earned it!"

THE FINAL LEVEL

If high school truly were a game, this.... graduation, would be THE FINAL LEVEL. It is definitely not easy to get to this level in the "game," and those who have come this far deserve a lot of credit.

You may have been seeing their names on the leaderboards all along, or some may have chosen to lay low until now. In this final level, however, you see them all in their distinguished caps and gowns, ready to take that final step and accomplish this great goal! Congratulations Graduates!

below: Brittini Scott, valedictorian, addressing the audience and her graduating class with grace and ease like the young new leader she has become!

above: Our JROTC color guard marched in and gained immediate attention from the crowd, and the graduation was started off right!

below: Tony Arrington leans forward as he listens intently to a message being delivered during such an important time.

a: Dr. White handing Asia King her high school diploma. She has been looking forward to this day for such a long time!

b: The moment they've all been waiting for... time to move that tassel to the other side and walk of the stage a true graduate!

1: Superintendent of IPS, Dr. Eugene White, giving a speech during graduation encouraging our graduates as they go forward in their lives.

2: George Durr receiving his diploma!

3: Shawn Creech receiving his diploma!

above: Cindi Nelis and Tyler Harkins joined the graduates in the gymnasium to throw their caps in the air and celebrate their great achievement! This is an occasion none of them will soon forget!

BEAST MODE

Our small, yet mighty cheer-leading squad put their all into hyping up the hornet's nest at games and pep rallies!

Now that the Thomas Carr Howe Yearbook Staff has completed their mission and distributed the final product to the true gamers involved. Those who see the content of this amazingly BeastMode yearbook, won't wanna put it down. Their minds will have been blown by the awesomeness of TC Howe!!! The "Insert Game" theme was for all you nerds and gamers out there. Now, after you're finished playing Call Of Duty (Redonkulous), or God Of War 3 (Bodacious), or whatever you play,...this book will still bring out your inner "Geek" and make you feel at home! Now, even though this is the end of the book...all you have to do is open it up again and re-live the great moments of the 2009-2010 school year at Thomas Carr Howe Community High School!!!

Keep it reel-from your awesome Yearbook Staff:)
